

← SOUNDING TOGETHER
2019

DUNSBOROUGH,
WA

Southward we go, all of us tangling up into conversation, improvisation happens always Sounding occasionally together, looking for what?

all and nothing (all or nothing) listen and play opens into the expanse of a red moon rising full of bird song and cryptic crossword winery jaunts

oh!
~~at~~ the stuff around us is us!

so what of the inside dance?

Caverns of new textures open up keep it easy and let it run trying to sense harmonious frequency or not, the sticky edges are full of new sound

Sound under water under canopy under the influence of vegan food

we meet ourselves there, we meet each other, layers and layers

we laugh we listen we play we are more than ourselves just for being where we are and sounding together (or trying to)
